Dear Safin,

Wow! How deep is this earth? So I dug a wee bit deeper. There were 20 pieces that were huge. It came with the instructions too. It took me an hour to finish it. Guess what? Not a spaceship but an enormous spaceship. Getting in, there was a red button, so I pushed it! Boom! That was fast. Too many things to stare at. Then I saw an asteroid charging towards my ship. Crash! The window broke. I was in a volcano. It was not big but gigantic! Knowing where I was I felt myself being lifted up. Ka Boom! I was on my way to Jupiter. Looking at a button I saw the word lunch. Pressing it food came. After lunch I had eaten 3 hamburgers, 30 nuggets, 2 tortillas and 5 brownies. We flew to Saturn and we ice skated on the rings for a while. Beep! Beep! Beep! A meteor was coming. So the ship got a bat and bam! The meteor went flying in space. Neptune is where we stopped. Rocks came and surrounded. Forcefield! Bang! Bang! Crash! Bump! The rocks went soaring through the air far, far away. Robbers were there, they were trying to poison the planet. Bezuks ready! Fire! Boom! Boom! They got in their ship flew away. I got an electric gun and shot them, Taking them home I asked them, tell me why they did this, they said because it's too bad. Aliens were on there so they killed them. Poisoning it so they can't live. That's why. I took them to jail the next day. Do you want to go know to Neptune? Cause it's awesome.

Love, Roshan
